

Call for Nominations: The Carework Network’s Founders’ Award

The Carework Network is a twenty-five-year-old global and multidisciplinary organization of researchers, policymakers, practitioners, and advocates committed to cutting-edge research and policy work addressing paid and unpaid care. For more information, please visit our website: <https://careworknetwork.org>

The Carework Network Founders (listed below) established this group through a series of meetings beginning in 1999. Their tireless commitment to the study of care as a significant issue and area of study led to the global organization we have today. This award honors a member who embodies the founders’ vision in establishing, developing, and expanding the Carework Network.

1999 ASA Organizing Meeting <ul style="list-style-type: none">* Amy Armenia, Rollins College* Nancy Folbre, University of Massachusetts Amherst* Naomi Gerstel, University of Massachusetts Amherst* LaShawnDa Pittman, University of Washington 2000 Conference Steering Committee <ul style="list-style-type: none">* Francesca Cancian, University of California Irvine* Demie Kurz, University of Pennsylvania* Rebecca Reviere, Howard University* Irvine Sheila Jones, Catholic Charities USA* Mary Tuominen, Denison University	2001-2001 Carework Network Steering Committee <ul style="list-style-type: none">* Demie Kurz, University of Pennsylvania* Jacquelyn Litt, Rutgers University* Andrew London, Syracuse University* Joya Misra, University of Massachusetts Amherst* Rachel Muñoz, University of Massachusetts Amherst* Lynet Uttal, University of Wisconsin-Madison* Judith Wittner, Loyola University of Chicago
---	---

Eligibility Criteria This award honors members who have demonstrated a significant commitment to the Carework Network by embodying the ideals of the group’s founders. Nominees will have made substantial contributions to the Carework Network, including extensive labor, that can be over many years or more recent engagement. They will have contributed significant work as a leader, organizer, and participant, nurturing scholarship through collective dialogue and mentorship with other care work scholars. They will have also served as visionaries, developing Carework Network innovations and new initiatives.

Nominations Nomination letters (including self-nominations) should be no more than 250 words and address how the nominee’s work contributes to the criteria above in English or Spanish.

Deadline: Nominations must be submitted by March 15, 2025. Please submit nominations to Kim Price-Glynn, kim.price-glynn@uconn.edu, and Carolina Sternberg, CSTERNB1@depaul.edu.

Awards will be presented at the Carework Network’s Fourth Global Care Summit at Duke University in Durham, NC. Awardees are invited and encouraged to attend the summit, but summit attendance is not an eligibility requirement. Awardees will be asked to serve as a reviewer on the next Carework Network Summit’s Founders Award committee. Applicant reviews will be conducted electronically/remotely.

Please address all questions to the awards committee co-chairs:

Kim Price-Glynn, kim.price-glynn@uconn.edu, and
Carolina Sternberg, CSTERNB1@depaul.edu